

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, Oct. 5.—This was an off day in the livestock market. Receipts were 120 cattle for this market and 125 which went through to the Sound, no sheep nor hogs being brought in. Of the cattle that came today the most were inferior, and these, with the low-grade stock in all lines that has been on hand for several days, made the market anything but showy.

Dealers announced no changes in quotations, and the course of the market this week will depend wholly upon the size and quality of the offerings. In the event of continued dumping of unfit stock, lower quotations, in some lines at least, may be expected, while a better showing in quality would of course tend to stiffen the market. The best in all classes is in demand and moves readily.

DETAILS OF THE POSTAL SAVINGS PLAN

Prompt Performance of Republican Platform Promise Is Certain.

Postal Savings Banks Will Form Safe and Convenient System for Accumulating Savings.

A bill providing for the establishment of postal savings banks was favorably reported by the United States Senate Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads during the recent session of Congress, and is reasonably certain to be enacted into law during the coming session, thus adding prompt performance to the promise of the Republican national platform relative to this form of strengthening our national system of finance.

The bill reported provides for the establishment of postal savings depositories for depositing savings at interest with the security of the Government for the repayment thereof and designates the money-order post-offices and such others as the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, from time to time designate as savings depositories to receive deposits from the public and to account and dispose of the same according to the terms of the act.

The depositories are to be kept open for the transaction of business every day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, during the usual post-office business hours of the town and localities where the respective depositories are located, and during such additional hours as the Postmaster-General may designate.

Accounts may be opened by any person of the age of 10 years, and a married woman may open an account free from interference by her husband. A trustee may open an account for another person. No person can open more than one having account except when acting as trustee for another person.

A depositor's pass book will be delivered to each depositor in which the name and other memoranda necessary for identification will be entered, and entry of all deposits shall be made.

One dollar or a larger amount in multiples of 10 cents will be necessary to open an account, but deposits of 10 cents or multiples thereof will be received after an account is opened.

Upon receiving a deposit the postmaster is required to enter the same in the pass-book of the depositor and immediately notify the Postmaster-General of the amount of the deposit and the name of the depositor. The Postmaster-General, upon receipt of such notice, is required to send an acknowledgment thereof to the depositor, which acknowledgment shall constitute conclusive evidence of the making of such deposit.

Interest Allowed on Deposits.—Interest is allowed at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, computed annually, on the average deposit during each quarter of the year. One thousand dollars is the maximum deposit allowed to the credit of any one account, and interest will not be paid on any amount to the credit of an account in excess of $500.

Pass books must be forwarded to the Postmaster-General on the anniversary of the making of the first deposit for verification, posting, and credit of interest due. Withdrawals may be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Postmaster-General. Deposits are exempt from seizure under any legal process against the depositor and they are also exempt from taxation by the United States or any state. The name of a depositor or the amount to his or her credit may not be disclosed unless by order of the Postmaster-General.

Postal savings funds are to be deposited by the Postmaster-General in national banks located as near as may be in the neighborhood where such deposits were received at a rate of interest not less than 2 1/4 per cent per annum. If deposits can not be made in national banks at the specified rate of interest, the Postmaster-General may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney-General, invest the same in State, Territorial, county, or municipal bonds.

Mr. Bryan shaves himself, and Mr. Taft patronizes only union barbers. In the meantime Mr. Kern apparently thinks that it is easier to raise whiskers than it is to raise the price of a shave.

Mr. Kern says it is no joke to be a vice president. In Mr. Kern's case the joke is in being a candidate for vice president.

Mr. Bryan says he was beaten in his former campaigns by money. He was beaten in his former campaigns by his advocacy of fifty cent dollars.

"Boss" Croker is warmly in favor of Bryan's election. Mr. Bryan once declared, "Great is Tammany, and Croker is its prophet."

"What does Mr. Bryan do but extend the glad hand?" asks a New York paper. Well, this year he is extending the glad hat.

"Shall the people rule?" is not a new issue. It was answered in the affirmative in this country as far back as 1776.

Democrats are proposing the "Tag" game for the purpose of raising campaign funds. It is more genteel, at least, than the Taggart game for the same purpose.

Mr. Bryan refuses to discuss Mr. Taft's experience with the black bass. Mr. Bryan is fighting very shy of the colored question this year.

It will not do Mr. Bryan any good to claim to be the heir to the Roosevelt policies. No one has ever succeeded in breaking Mr. Roosevelt's will.

Mr. Bryan insists that the Republican party has adopted or adapted all of his policies. In that case why should he be trying to defeat the Republican party?

Mr. Bryan will not discuss the question of negro disfranchisement in the south, but he hopes the northern negroes will vote for him without letting the south know anything about it.

Montana has a new town named Taft. It will be very much on the map after Nov. 3.

HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say:

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

"I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it."

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

TAFT'S LABOR POLICY

I ask that every responsible and fair-minded labor leader, every responsible and fair-minded member of a labor organization, read these (Taft's) injunctions for himself. If he will do so, instead of condemning them he will heartily approve of them and will recognize this further astonishing fact that the principles laid down by Judge Taft in these very injunctions, which laboring people are asked to condemn, are themselves the very principles which are now embodied in the laws or practices of every responsible labor organization. The principles which he therein so wisely and fearlessly laid down serve as a charter of liberty for all of us, for wage workers, for employers, or the general public; for they rest on the principles of fair dealing for all, of even-handed justice for all. They mark the judge who rendered them as standing for the rights of the whole people; as far as daylight is from darkness, so far as such a judge from the time-server, the truckler to the mob, or the cringing tool of great, corrupt and corrupting corporations.—President Roosevelt.
